PH still top Christian country in Asia, 5th in world

MANILA, Philippines — The Philippines remains the most Christian country in Asia, with 93 percent of the population professing the faith, according to a new survey by the Pew Research Center. The survey, which is the first of its kind in Asia, found that the Philippines is the fifth most Christian country in the world, ahead of Italy, Spain, Mexico and the United States.

The survey, which was conducted between January and March 2011, found that the Philippines is the only country in Asia where the majority of the population is Christian. In the Philippines, 93 percent of the population is Christian, with 81 percent being Roman Catholic and 12 percent being Protestant. In Italy, 87 percent of the population is Christian, with 86 percent being Roman Catholic and 1 percent being Protestant. In Spain, 68 percent of the population is Christian, with 65 percent being Roman Catholic and 3 percent being Protestant. In Mexico, 68 percent of the population is Christian, with 65 percent being Roman Catholic and 3 percent being Protestant. In the United States, 70 percent of the population is Christian, with 69 percent being Protestant and 1 percent being Catholic.

PSC urges 'flopped' NSAs. Find sponsors

By Jason Browne

PHILADELPHIA — The National Soccer Federation's National Soccer Academy (NSA) is facing a crisis of confidence. The league's 10 teams, which were supposed to be the elite of the sport, have all failed to attract sponsors. The league's president, John G. Gargano, has urged the teams to find sponsors by the end of the year. "We need to see some action here," Gargano said. "We need to see some action here."

The NSA was created in 1994 by the U.S. Soccer Federation. It was supposed to be the elite of the sport, the place where the best players would go. But now, it's a league of 10 teams, all of which are struggling to find sponsors. The league's president, John G. Gargano, has urged the teams to find sponsors by the end of the year. "We need to see some action here," Gargano said. "We need to see some action here."

European Union fails to reach IMF loan target

BRUSSELS, Aug. 10 — The European Union failed to reach its target of securing a $750 billion loan from the International Monetary Fund (IMF) to help it cope with the economic crisis, a senior EU official said on Monday.

The official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the EU had been unable to secure the loan because the IMF had not agreed to the terms of the loan. The official said the IMF had insisted on a number of conditions that the EU had found unacceptable, including a requirement that the EU agree to a number of reforms that it had not agreed to.

Further rifts cited within the 27 member bloc

BRUSSELS, Aug. 10 — The European Union's 27 member states are facing further rifts over the IMF loan, with some countries arguing that the EU should not agree to the terms of the loan without first securing the agreement from the IMF.

The official said the EU had been unable to secure the loan because the IMF had not agreed to the terms of the loan. The official said the IMF had insisted on a number of conditions that the EU had found unacceptable, including a requirement that the EU agree to a number of reforms that it had not agreed to.

Developing nations urged to boost defenses

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 — The United States is urging developing nations to boost their defenses, a senior Pentagon official said on Monday.

The official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the United States was concerned about the growing military power of some developing nations, particularly China and Russia. The official said the United States was concerned that these nations might use their increased military power to threaten the United States or its allies.

Merino Mania! Pure Fervor!

THE JOY OF MERINO WOOL IS AN increasingly popular topic. In the Philippines, the wool apparel industry is growing at a rapid pace.

Embracing the Merino

Merino wool is a natural fiber from the Merino sheep, which is known for its soft, fine texture. It is a popular choice for high-quality clothing, especially in the Philippines, where the climate is warm and humid. The wool is known for its ability to regulate body temperature, making it a perfect choice for both summer and winter wear.

Merino wool is also known for its durability and resistance to odors. It is a natural fiber that does not require the use of harsh chemicals or dyes, making it a more eco-friendly choice. The wool is also known for its ability to keep you warm in the winter and cool in the summer, making it a versatile choice for year-round wear.
